They Answer

Dee Want Ads.

questions about boarding, renting, rooming s n d

CITY IN FLAMES, AT SHIP'S MERCY

Revolt More Serious Than all Russian Defeats in War.

REGULAR NAVAL BATTLE EXPECTED

Odessa Rioters, Emboldened By Sight, Defy Authorities-Many People Killed and Injured, and Situation Growing Worse-Officers Murdered.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York World.)

London, June 29 .- The Standard's correspondent at Odessa, telegraphing at 9:20 last night says;

"A disquieting report has been brought here to the effect that four other battleships have mutinted at Bebastopol and that two of them are on the way to join the Kniaz Potemkin. This evening the Kniaz Potemkin moved closer to the breakwater with her heavy guns trained on the city." The same correspondent telegraphing a

The same correspondent telegraphing at 8:10 of clock says:

"The quarantine station, harbor, warehouses, stores and offices and some of the Russian shipping have been fired by revolutionary bands in the town, setting all the government buildings in flames which are now brilliantly illuminating the whole portion of the city towards the sea. All foreign ships are preparing to slip their moorings in case of need, but the Kniaz Potemkin is playing her searchlight on every portion of the harbor. I have just learned that the Kniaz Potomkin perceiving a picket of Costomkin perceiving a picket of Cos-sacks stationed at the Richilleu monument fired a shell, killing four soldlers and wounding twenty."

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, June 28.—A dispatch from Odessa to a news agency, dated Wednesday night, says;

"The whole of the quays and buildings around the harbor, as well as much shipping, are in flames. Mobs of incendiaries preventing the fire brigade working. Troops are kept at hay and are afraid to approach within reach of the Kniaz Potemkine's guns, which threaten a disastrous bombardment. The city is appallingly illuminated by burning buildings, and terror prevalls everywhere. Sleep is impossible, and everybody is watching and waiting. The whole garrison has been requisitioned for patrol duty. It is thought it may become necessary to summon foreign warships for the protection of the foreign colonies. Tuesday night's collisions between the mobs and the police and military resulted day night's collisions between the moba and the police and military, resulted in the loss of seventeen lives includ-ing three policemen.".

HAS HOISTED RED FLAG OF REVOLUTION

Strikers Take Heart From Mutiny on Ship and Defy Authorities.

ODESSA, June 28 .- The red flag of rev olution is hoisted at the masthead of the Kulaz Potemkine, Russia's most powerful battleship in the Black Sea, which now lies in the harbor in the hands of

The captain and most of the crew were The captain and most of the crew w fourdered and thrown overboard in open sea, and the ship is completely the possission of the crew and a f officers who have thrown in their lot we the mutineers.

Naval Battle in Prospect.

The guns of the Kniaz Potenikine conmand the city and in the street masses of striking workinen who yesterday fled before the volleys of the troops are now inflamed by the spectacle of open revolt on board an imperial warship and are making a bold front against the military.

All day long firing has been heard in many quarters of the city. A number it barricades have been erected and tumult and disorder rolen.

mult and disorder reign.

The main squadron of the Black Sea fleet, consisting of the battleships Georgie Pobledonosetz (George the Victorious), Tri Sviatitella, Rostislav and Ekatorina II., with two cruisers are expected to arrive here to-night and a regular naval battle is in prospect.

The rioters are in a most defiant mood and are not inclined to surrender without fighting.

How Mutting Cooursed

How Mutiny Occurred.

How Mutiny Occurred.

Reports of the mutiny, which occurred while the battleship was at sea, are difficult to obtain as the mutineers refuse to allow communication with the shore; but it is ascertained that it arose from the shooting of a sallor who was presenting on behalf of the crew a compidiate asginst had food. According to one version this sallor: whose name was Omiltohuk, objected to the quality of the "borchtch" or soup, and was immediately shot down by a mess officer. The crew then rose and selzed the ship and the officers eight of whom were spared on condition that they would join the mutineers. The others were killed and their bodies thrown overboard. After a period of vacillation, the Kniaz Potemkine headed for Odessa and arrived here last night, accompanied by two torpedo boats.

Authorities Defied.

Authorities Defied.

Raily to-day, the body of Omiltohuk was brought ashore in one of the battleships beats and was landed on the new Mole where it has been exposed in semistate all day. It was visited by thousands of persons, many of whom placed coins in a basket at the head of the new towards a fund to defray the cost of the funeral, which the sallors propose to hold to-morrow and which the strikers will make the eccasion of a great demonstration.

tration.

An inscription on the breast of the

NEW DIRECTORS FOR EQUITABLE

List Included Joseph Bryan, of Richmond and Eight Others.

NO MORE SCANDAL CLEVELAND SAYS

First Definite Steps Looking to Reorganization of Great Insurance Corporation Taken. Vanderbilt, Squire and Hill Resign From Board. Statement Issued. .

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK June 28.—Grover Cleve land, Morgan J. O'Brien and George Westinghouse, the trustees of the majority stock of the Equitable Life Assur ance Society, took the first step in the reorganization of the society to-day by accepting the resignations of all the directors who had tendered them and for warding to the board of directors the names of nine prominent citizens, representing the interests of the stockholders, with the recommendation that they be at once elected. The recommendation of the trustees was immediately compiled with, and the following gentlemen became members of the directorate:

E. B. Thomas, F. G. Bourne, J. E. Schmidlapp, Frederick Roebling, William Whitman, E. W. Bloomingdale, E. W. Robertson, Joseph Bryan and J. J. Albright.

The New Directors.

All of the new men hold policies of various amounts in the Equitable Society, and their names were submitted in large par; by the society's general agenta.

E. W. Robertson is a prominent South Carolinian and Joseph Bryan is a capitalist and representative citizen of Rich-Mr. Whitman was chairman of a policy

Mr. Whitman was chairman of a policy holders protective committe, organized in Boston, when the Equitable troubles first became public. Messrs. Robertson and Bryan, were urged for election by a committee of Equitable policyholders in the Bouth, of which Governor Duncan C. Heyward was the chairman. None of these men own five shares of the Equitable stock, althouth all are holders of policies. The charter of the society provides that each director must be the owner of at least five shares of stock, and it was believed yesterday that the trustees of the Ryan stock would have to transfer to them the certificates requisite to qualify them as members of the directorate. Unless this be done, some of the stockholders in the minority may raise the question as to the legality of the election of the new directors.

Statement Issued.

Statement Issued.

The Equitable trustees, headed by Grover Cleveland, to-day Issued an appeal to policyholders asking for an expression of their preferences in the filling of racancles in the directorate and saying there was no reason for doubt as to the

there was no reason for doubt as to the safety of policy investments. The appeal further says:

"The published reports of those who have investigated the past management of the society and the astounding revelations they bring to light, have impressed us with the grave responsibility resting upon us to prevent, so far as it is in our power, a repetition of a scandalous and tragic chapter in the bistory of a great life insurance company. The lessons to be learned from the exposures made chapter in the history of a great life insurance company. The lessons to be learned from the exposures made in these reports are that men who are more concerned in making money for themselves than in alsoharging a sacred trust should not have control of a life insurance company, and that in the investment of life insurance funds safety rather than large profits should be the rule."

Defense of Hyde

Defense of Hyde. before except those of George H. Squire, James J. Hill and Alfred G. Vanderbitt.

James J. Hill and Alfred G. Vanderbit. That these gentlemen had sent in their resignations was not known until the fact of their acceptance.

A long statement from James H. Hyde replying to the strictures convoyed in the report of State Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks was read at the meeting of the directors. It was mainly a defense of the late Henry B. Hyde.

Mr. Joseph Bryan's first knowledge that the trustees of the Equitable were de-sirious of nominating him for the direc-(Continued on Second Page.)

She Must Allow Him Enough

Money to Settle His Debts.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINCHESTER, VA., June 28 .- An opinion, said to be the first on record in Virginia courts was handed down to-day in the case of Joseph W. Solenberger, who sought to collect a judgment held against his brother, Noah W. Solenberger and wife, Noah Solenberger being insolvent and manager of several big fruit farms to Judge Harrison's decision is that the impecunious husband of a wealthy wa-man, who has acted as the manager of his wife's property and who has controlled and developed the same, is entitled under the law to compensation therefor and the creditors of the husband may require the wife to pay him adequate compensation in order that the amount may be subjected to the payment of the claims which his wife holds deed.

held against the husband.

A WEALTHY WIFE

J. E. FOWLER. J. S. ALVIS. M. E. BRIDGES. R. D. BAILEY, J. M. WILKINSON. JOHN BOWMAN.
J. M. MOORE, CHAS, SNEAD, J. J. SLAUGHTER, J. W. REAMS. J. W. CARROLL.

JURY IN WHOSE HANDS LIES THE FATE OF MRS. ESTELLE TOWNSEND SMITH.

INTO RAVINE

Three People Injured in Wreck on Southern Railway Near Alexandria.

TRAIN DITCHED AT SALISBURY

Spike Had Been Placed on Track at Curve-Nobody Killed.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., June 28.-Northbound passenger train, No. 38, known as the Washington Southwestern limited, from New Orleans to New York, was wrecked this morning about 8 o'clock at Springfield station on the Southern road, about eight miles below this city, and several passengers were injured but no one was killed. The more severely in ured were: Mr. Tilfair Stockton, of Jacksonville, Mr. Tilfair Stockton, of Jacksonville, Fla., cut on the legs and hands; Miss Alce Hutchison, of Leesburg, Va., painfully bruised and badly shaken up; A little son of Rev. William P. Turner, a missionary who had recently returned from Japan, cut on the head. Many other pussengers were shaken up and bruised, but their injuries were only slight.

Narrow Escape.

Narrow Escape.

The escape from death or serious maming of a large number of people was highly remarkable. The sleeping car Aristides, containing many passengers in their berths, completely overturned and plunged down an embankment thirty test deer. The pushengers were thrown feet deep. The pusshengers were thrown out of their apartments and a panic ensued. For awhile there was a scene of the wildest confusion, as the frantio of the wildest confusion, as the frantle passengers attempted to free themselves from the debrs of broken glass and splintered timber. As soon as possible the train crew and railroad section men ment to their assistance. They were beating their way out of the wrecked car by every possible means of exit. Added to the danger from fire, which had broken out on one of the mali cars forward, was the probability that the coach would fall still lower in the rayine. The forward end of the Aristides was resting in an uncertain position on the opposite side of the stream and the rear end was lodged on the abutments of the trestle. From the appearance of that particular car the rescue party expected to find many maimed or killed, but, as stated above, the occupants escaped without desperate injury. It was in this car that those who were severely hurt were riding.

In a., short lime the trainmen succeeded in getting all the passengers out. Among them was an old invalid lady who had a berth in the rear of the coach but who, though thrown of her bed, was almost entirely uninjured. It was in attempting to, out his way out of a window that Mr. Stockton, of

(Continued on Third Page.).

THE ARCANUM RATES

Council at Williamsburg Asks the Urgent Call of a Convention.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., June 23.—Powhatan Council, Royal Arcainum, met last night and took up the question of the changes in assessment rates recently made by the Supreme Council, Several speeches were made and the following resolutions were unanimously passed;
First, That Powhatan Council, No. 1843, Royal Arcanum, enter a protest against the proposed system adopted by the Supreme Council as being unfair, unfust and unbusiness like, and contrary to the fundamental principles of the order.
Second, That we urgently suggest that the scheme recently promigated for the management of the Royal Arcanum be revoked and discarded.
Third, That we call upon the grand regent of Virginia to call for a convention of delegates from each subordinate council in the State to consider this question at once.

Fourth, That a copy of the above resolutions be sent to each subordinate coun-ell in the State, and to the supreme grand officers of the Royal Arcanum.

NOT SATISFIED WITH

POINTER ON THE WEATHER

CONDITIONS YESTERDAY.

Highest temperature yesterday...... Lowest temperature yesterday..... Mean temperature yesterday.... Normal temperature for June... Departure from normal temperature

Sun rises. 4.53 IP-GH TIDE. Sun sets. 7:34 Morning. Moon rises. 2:34 Evening.

BODY FOUND IN

Remains of Miss Mary O. Rogers Discovered in North After Long Search.

NO FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED

District Attorney Issues Statement Exonerating Smtih From All Blame.

(By Associated Press.)

SARANAU LAKE, N. Y., June 28,—
The body of Miss Mary O. Rogers, of Leesburg, Va., was found to-day in the Saranac River near the cottage from which she disappeared a week ago.
District Attorney Finn to-day issued an official statement exonerating Willoughby official statement exonerating Willoughby N. Smith from all blame in connection with the death of Miss Rogers.

Native of Leesburg

Native of Leesburg.

(By Associated Press.)

LEESBURG, VA., June 28.—Miss Mary Rogers was born in this city about thirty-four years ago. She was the daughter of Alexander Rogers; her mother, before her marriage to Mr. Rogers, being Miss Julia Clagett, of Leesburg. For many years, she was engaged to marry Willoughby N. Smith, an attorney of Baltimore, but would not consent to the marriage during the lifetime of her mother. On account of her mother's age, a large part of the care and management of the family estate, "Woodburn," near here, devolved upon Miss Rogers, After her mother's death, in February, 1903, the estate was sold, and Miss Rogers moved to Leesburg, making her home with her sister, Mrs. R. B. Fishburn. It was not long after this, however, that Miss Rogers developed tuberculosis, and upon the advice of her physician, she went to Saranac Lake, accompanied by a trained mirse and Willoughby H. Smith. She was exceptionally popular in this community. At no time while in Leesburg did she appear to suffer from melancholia or any other disease of the mind.

Miss Rogers was not a person of great melancholia or any other disease of the mind.

Miss Rogers was not a person of great wealth, as has been generally reported, though she had independent means. The bulk of her property came from a legacy of $10,000 in life insurance, left by her brother, Oden Rogers, who died in 1904. It is believed here that she invested this sum on the advice of Smith, but it is not thought that size suffered any financial losses; or reverses to any considerable extent, or that they contributed to the cause of her melancholia.

WANT HELP TO-DAY.

The 14 advertisements for help pub-lished in to-day's Times-Dispatch on page 10 are as follows:

1 Office. 2 Domestics, 5 Trades. 4 Miscellaneous 3 Salesmen

This not only interest those out of work, but those desiring to improve their positions as well.

The President Scores Millionaires | Nebraskan Gets Storm of Cheers . Who Ignore Laws and Spend Fortunes in Philanthropy.

UNIVERSITY

Wanton Brutality in Sports and Growth of Luxury Condemned. Duty of Alumni.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., June 28.-Although nominally celebrating with his classmates the twenty-fifth anniversary of the class of 80 from Harvard Unithe honored guest of America's most ancient seat of learning. No degrees of ponor were conferred upon him, as he already holds the highest degree the University is empowered to bestow, but the welcome accorded him by Cambridge citizens, alumni and college officials was most cordial.

The President entered heartily into the spirit of commencement day, and played a leading part in all the functions incident to the occasion. It was scarcely 30 clock this morning when the Lieutenant-Governor, representing the Commonwealth, called at the home of Bishop William Lawrence, where the President spent the night, to escort him to the Harvard yard, where the academic procession was to form for the march to Saunders Theatre, the scene of the commencement exercises.

President Speaks.

President Speaks.

Following the commencement exercises, the President made three public addresses, one at the Harvard Union; a second, and the principal one of his tour, at the annual alumni dinner in Memorial Hail. and a third from the steps of Memoria could not gain admittance to the Me-porial Hall exercises. At the alumni dinner the President said:

"If America is to contribute its full shata, to the progress not alone of knowledge, but of wisdom, then we must put ever-increasing emphasis on university work done along the lines must put ever-increasing emphasis on university work done along the lines of the graduate school. We can best help the growth of American geholarship by seeing that as a career it is put more on a level with the other careers open to our young men. The general opinion of the community is bound to have a very great effect even upon its most vigorous and independent minds. If in the public mind the career of the scholar is regarded as of insignificant value when compared with that of a glorified pownbroker, then it will with difficulty be made attractive to the most vigorous and gifted of our American young men. Good teachers, excellent institutions, and libraries are all demanded in a graduate school worthy (Continued on Second Page.) (Continued on Second Page.)

presented for consideration, eight contestants lining up in the race for Governor and two ballots being necessary for both that place and for supreme judga. There was no dissent fro mthe pratform when it was finally presented, all cloments of the party having settled their differences in the long sessions of the committee. Tribute to Bryan.

at Ohio Democratic Convention.

Platform Calls for Railroad Rate

Regulation-John R. Mc-

Lean Resigns.

(By Associated Press.)
COLUMBUS, OHIO, June 28.—After continuous session of six hours the Ohio

following State ticket to be voted on at the State election in November:

Lieutenant - Governor - L. o. u i n. B.

Supreme Judge-Hugh T. Mathers.

Attorney-General-James A. Rice.

State Treasurer-Charles F. Mason.

Member of the Board of Public Works-Patrick C. McGovern, of

The office of State Treasurer was the nly one for which only one name was resented for consideration, eight con-

Democratic convention to-day named the Clermont county.

of Shelby county

of Butler county.

Muskinggum county.

Houck, of Knox county.

EVILS PATTISON FOR GOVERNOR

The greatest demonstrations of the convention came at the close of Chairman Daugherty's speech, when an impromptu tribute to William J. Bryan, as he leader in the nation, brought out a storm of cheers that lasted fully a minute, and vociferous applause was re-peated later in the convention when other speakers referred to Mr. Bryan. The Platform.

The platform says in part:
"We note with satisfaction the determination of the national administration to purchase supplies for the

(Continued on Second Page.)

STATEMENT TO-DAY ON PANAMA AFFAIR

President and Secretary of War Dr. Alderman Gets Degree of Hold Conference Over Situation.

(By Associated Press.)
CAMBRIDGE, MASS., June 28.—President Roosevelt and Secretary of War Taft were in conference at the residence of Bishop Lawrence for about an hour early to-night, and discussed the resignation of Chief Engineer Wallace, of the Panama Canal Commission. It was do-Panama Canal Commission. It was de-cided to make no announcement regard-ing the resignation, but Secretary Taft, after the conforence, said that a state-ment for the public would be issued in Washington to-morrow. The secretary declined to say what action had been taken regarding the Wallace affair, or to give any of the details of his discussion with Mr. Wallace and Theodore Shonts, chairman of the Isthmian Canal Commis-sion.

Japs at Vladivostok. (By Associated Press.)
VLADIVOSTOK. June 28.—Jepanese warships, believed to be torpedo hoats, were seen on the horizon to-day.

ROCKEFELLER GIVES $1,000,000 TO YALE

LL.. D. and Speaks at Alumni Dinner.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW HAVEN, CONN., June 28.—President Hadley, of Yale, announced at the alumni dinner this afternoon that a sift of $1,000,000 had been recently made by John D. Rockefeller, President Hadley also said that $2,000,000 in all have been given to the University within a comparasubscribed by graduates in sums varying from $50,000 to $250,000. The names of the latter donors were not made public. Pres-ident Hadiey said that the "only condition of any kind underlying Mr. Rockefeller's gift is that the money is to be invested in income-producing securities and preserved inviolate as endowment for the institution, the annual income only it be used for current expenses. Among the speakers at the dinner was President Edwin A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia. President Alderman to-day received the honorary degree of doctor of lay

MRS. SMITH WEEPS IN MOTHER'S ARMS

Aged Lady, Broken in Health, Reaches Her Daughter's Side.

JURORS SWEAR TO WELL AND TRULY TRY

Judge Clopton, Addressing Jury, Says, "You Must Not Read Any Newspapers"--Counsel for the Defense Again Note Exceptions.

Jury in Smith Case.

Jury III Smith Case.
James W. Reams, Manchester.
John S. Alvis, Manchester.
Charles Sneade, Manchester.
R. D. Balley, Manchester.
W. E. Bridger, Chesterfield county.
J. M. Wilkinson, Chesterfield county.
J. E. Fowler, Chesterfield county.
J. W. Carroll, Chesterfield county.
J. M. Moore, Chesterfield county.
J. E. Bowman, Chesterfield county.
John Slaughter, Chesterfield county.
M. E. Bridger, Chesterfield county.

The beginning of the second day of the trial of Mrs. Estella Townsend Smith for the alleged murder of her five-year-old son, Ralph, was most eventful, yet comforting for the unhappy prisoner.

Her mother, seventy years of age and in feeble health, and her brother, possibly the most distinguished children's physician and surgeon in New York, arrived in Manchester to lend her the strength of their sympathy and affection and to bear with her the humiliation and sorrow that has come into her eventful life.

The meeting between the mother and her daughter was heartrending. For more than two years they had not seen each other, although throughout the last two months letters full of affection had passed from one to the other.

An Affecting Meeting.

Through the kindness of Judge Clopton, Mrs. Smith was brought to the sergeant's office at the courthouse, where Dr. Townsend and his mother awaited her. gent's office at the courthouse, where Dr. Townsend and his mother awaited her. Dr. Townsend was standing at the window opposite the door, and Mrs. Townsend was sitting in the corner behind the door, when Mrs. Smith entered. She was unable to see her mother, but she ran forward to her brother, and throwing her arms about his neck, cried: "My dear, dear brother." Then, turning, sae saw her mother coming towards her. Mother and daughter clasped each other in their arms and not a word was said. Both wept bitterly. For twenty minutes the kind-hearted officers left them alone, and then Mrs. Smith was taken back to her quarters in the jail.

Mrs. Townsend, the mother of Mrs. Smith, was born in Norfolk and is proud of being a Virginian. Dr. Wisner R. Townsend, as all the world knows, is the head of the Children's Hospital, of New York, and one of the best known and most highly esteemed members of the medical profession in the country.

Mr. Henry Lee Valentine, when seen last night, said:

"I had hoped that Dr. Townsend and his mother would be my guests while they remained in this vicinity. Dr. Townsend in this vicinity. Dr. Townsend.

send is at the head of his profession, and I am personally under great obligations to him. Mrs. Townsend is a Virginian, who was married at the American enhances in Paris in the days when Mr. John Y. Mason was our minister to France. She has a great many relative in Virginia, and has been in the habit of coming to Petersburg every winter."

Secure a Jury. As was told exclusively in The Times-Dispatch of yesterday, the last venire was obtained from Matoaca District, of Chesterfield county.

Sergeant Saunders left Tuesday night on the 7 o'clock train for Petersburg, and early on yesterday morning summoned fifty of the best citizens of the "Yellow Jacket" country.

But 3 cyclock at 10 of the fifty yesterment

"Yellow Jacket" country.

By 3 o'clock all of the fifty veniremen were on the court green, and seldom has there been seen such an intelligent or prosperous looking company of men.

Promptly at 4 o'clock the judge entered the court room and took his seat upon the bench. The crowd was larger than on the day previous, and several lades were in the throng behind the railing that kept back the crowd.

Sergeant Saunders opened court with the quaint old words that smack of mediaeval times:

Oyezi oyezi oyes' Silence is commanded under pain of fine and imprisonment whilst the Hon. Judge of the Corporation Court of the city of Manchester is now sitting. All persons having pleas to enter or sults to prosecute, let them come forward and they shall be heard. God save the Commonwealth!"

The Prisoner Enters.

The Prisoner Enters.

Mrs. Smith, escorted by Mr. Wells, her funtor counsel; Dr. Townsend, her brother; Mr. Henry Lee Valentine and Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Ashburner, entered the court and took her seat behind, Mr. H. M. Smith, her senior counsel. The prisoner was again dressed entirely in black and again her face was covered by a thick black vell. Not for a second was the voil raised, not even when the indictment was once more read.

Dr. Townsend and his sister conversed in low whispers, but she spoke to no one cise.

All the words "God save the Common-wealth!" left the sergeant's lips, Mr, H, M, Smith was on his feet, He said: "We move to quash the venire and the

"We move to quash the venire and the sergeant's return thereon."
Judge Clopton replied:
"The motion is overruled."
The six jurors selected on Tuesday were then called and a tedious delay was occasioned by the absence of Mr. Schaatt, Finally all answered to their names, and the examination of the new venire began, Mr. W. H. Falson has expressed an opinion and felt that his mind was made up. He stood aside.

Mr. W. E. Bridger, a pattern maker, had not heard of the cases and felt that he could give the prisoner a fair and impartial trial. He was sent to the jury box and was No. 7.

Mr. J. M. Wilkinson, a farmer, answered the questions the court propounds ed and became the eighth juror.

Mr. J. E. Fowler, a laborer, was con-

(Continued on Ninth Page;